

E4 online internship 2020 (JD)

E4 Development and Coaching Ltd is interested in offering online internships to HR Students in the areas of learning & Development for a period of 4 to 6 weeks commencing 1st May 2020.

To know more about us your student can visit our website www.e4india.com

The projects to be done by the student will include the following:

1. Development of learning content to be used in corporate training using instructional design methodology
2. Design of games learning and interventional methodology
3. Conducting a Sales Capability Building survey for corporates
4. Designing case study as methodology for teaching and training

Methodology to be followed during the internships:

1. Initial zoom session to share the frame work and methodology of interaction with students
2. Weekly target based assignments in the above mentioned areas
3. Review of submission made online session
4. Presentation to be made by students who excel in their projects online
5. Certification at the end of the project and based on the Black book to be submitted online.

Competency required:

1. Ability to speak and write English fluently
2. Ability to verbally communicate and presentation skills before a large audience
3. A learning mindset, with an attention to detail and an ability to condense large amounts of information into usable parts.

How to apply:

Kindly send bio profiles with photo insert of the student in the application to careers@e4india.com.

All applications must come through the placement office only and no direct bio profiles will be accepted

No of internships available:

Internships are being offered across 60 cities in India

Stipend payable:

No stipend is available for these projects, however students who excel in the projects will be suitably rewarded besides getting a certificate of completion.

Last date for receipt of Bio profiles: 20th April 2020

Interviews will be conducted telephonically; First come, first served basis for the receipt of applications.

Last date for interviews: 25th April 2020. Appointment letter & confirmation of projects will be 28th April 2020.